CAYMAN ISLANDSMerchant Shipping Law*MERCHANT SHIPPING (RETURNS OF BIRTHS
AND DEATHS) REGULATIONS, 2004*(SL 14 of 2004)

The Governor, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 331, 430 and 460 of the Merchant Shipping Law (2004 Revision) makes the following Regulations:

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Returns of Births and Deaths) Regulations, 2004.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations “Caymanian” has the same meaning as in the Immigration Law, 2003.

Application

3. Subject to regulations 6, 9, 12 and 13, these regulations apply to all Cayman Islands ships wherever they may be and to all other ships while in Cayman Islands waters.

Birth in ship registered in the Islands

4. Where a child is born in a Cayman Islands ship the master shall make a return of the birth in accordance with regulations 7 and 8.

Death in ship registered in the Islands and death of a person employed in such a ship5. Where —

- (a) a person dies in a Cayman Islands ship; or
- (b) a person employed in any such ship dies outside the Islands, the master shall —
 - (i) make a return of the death in accordance with regulations 7 and 8; and
 - (ii) as soon as practicable but not more than three days after the death, notify the death to such person, if any, as the deceased may have named to him as his next of kin.

Birth and death in ship not registered in the Islands6. Where —

- (a) a Caymanian is born or dies in a ship not registered in the Islands; and
- (b) the ship thereafter calls at a port in the Islands in the course of or at the end of the voyage, during which the birth or death occurs, the master shall make a return of the birth or of the death in accordance with regulations 7 and 8.

Returns of births and deaths

- 7. (1) A return of birth or of a death required to be made under regulation 4 or 5 shall be made by the master as soon as practicable, but within six months of the birth or death to which it relates and shall be made to the Shipping Master.
- (2) A return of a birth or of a death required to be made under regulation 6 shall be made by the master to the Shipping Master.
- (3) Without prejudice to paragraph (1) and (2) and to regulation 14, a return of a birth or of a death required to be made under regulation 4, 5 or 6 which is not made within the prescribed period shall not be invalid by reason only that it is not made within that period.

Contents of returns8. A return of a birth or of a death required to be made under these regulations —

- (a) shall be in writing;
- (b) shall be signed by the master as informant; and
- (c) shall contain —
 - (i) (in the case of a birth) the particulars specified in Schedule 1; or
 - (ii) (in the case of a death) the particulars specified in Schedule 2, or so many of those particulars as the master may reasonably be able to obtain, having regard to the circumstances of the birth and the death.

Records of deaths where master unable to act

- 9. Where it appears to the Shipping Master that the master of the ship cannot perform the duty imposed on him by virtue of regulation 5 in respect of a death because the master of the ship has died or is incapacitated or missing, or either —
- (a) that the death in question has been the subject of an inquest held by the coroner or an inquiry held in pursuance of section 429 of the Merchant Shipping Law (2004 Revision) and the findings of the inquest or inquiry include a finding that a death occurred; or
 - (b) a post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased person has been made and in consequence the coroner is satisfied that an inquest is unnecessary, the Shipping Master shall record such of the information of the death specified in Schedule 2 as he may be able to obtain in the circumstances.

Particulars of deaths to be supplied by coroners

- 10. Where —

- (a) an inquest is held on a dead body or relating to a death or postmortem examination; and
 - (b) it appears to the coroner that the death in question is such as is mentioned in regulation 5(a) or (b), as extended by regulation 13(1),
- it is the duty of the coroner to send to the Shipping Master particulars in respect of the deceased of the kind specified in Schedule 3.

Certified copies of these returns or records to be sent to the Registrar General

- 11. When a return made in accordance with regulations 7 and 8 has been transmitted to him, or a record in accordance with regulation 9 has been made by him, the Shipping Master shall send a copy, certified by him, or by a person authorised by him for that purpose, to be a true copy of that return or record, to the Registrar General.

Other births and deaths outside the Islands

- 12. (1) This regulation applies to the following births and deaths occurring outside the Islands in circumstances where no return or record is required to be made under the preceding provisions of these regulations: —
- (a) a birth or death of a Caymanian which occurs in a ship not registered in the Islands;

- (b) a death of a Caymanian who has been employed in such a ship which occurs elsewhere than in the ship; and
 - (c) a death of a person who has been employed in a ship registered in the Islands, which occurs elsewhere than in the ship.
- (2) Where he is satisfied that a birth or a death to which this regulation applies has occurred, the Registrar General may record in the marine register —
- (a) in the case of a birth, such of the particulars specified in Schedule 1; or
 - (b) in the case of a death, such of the particulars specified in Schedule 2,
- as he thinks fit.

Extensions to certain unregistered ships

- 13. (1) The provisions of section 331 of the Merchant Shipping Law (2004 Revision) and of these regulations (except regulations 6 and 12(1)(a) and (b)) shall extend to ships which are not registered either in the Islands or elsewhere and which are sea-going ships owned by a person resident in, or by a body corporate having a principal place of business in, the Islands, and to masters and seamen employed in them.
- (2) Paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 and paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 as extended by paragraph (1) shall have effect with the modification that for subparagraphs (a) and (b) of each of those paragraphs there shall be substituted —
- (a) the name of the ship and sufficient description to identify the ship;
 - (b) the name of the owner; and
 - (c) the address of his residence in the Islands, or, if the owner is a body corporate having a principal place of business in the Islands, the address of that place of business. (2)

Offences

- 14. A master who fails to comply with regulation 4, 5, 6, 7 or 8 or of regulation 4, 5, 7, or 8 as extended by regulation 13 is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine.
