CAYMAN ISLANDSComplaints (Maladministration) Law*COMPLAINTS COMMISSIONER
REGULATIONS, 2006
(SL 16 of 2006)

The Governor, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 23 of the Complaints Commissioner Law (2006 Revision), makes the following Regulations —

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Complaints Commissioner Regulations, 2006.

Mediators and advisers

2. (1) Mediators and professional or technical advisers referred to in section 8 of the Law shall be appointed under a contract of service which shall embody the terms and conditions of their engagement, including their remuneration.
(2) Remuneration shall be determined in accordance with a fair market value appraisal, undertaken by the Commissioner, of the work to be performed.

Expenses of complainants and others

3. (1) Transport, accommodation and other expenses referred to in section 14(4)(a) of the Law shall be proven by proper receipts or other sufficient documentary evidence.
(2) The Commissioner may, at his discretion, allow payment of an expense not exceeding fifty dollars for which no receipt or documentary evidence is provided but which he is satisfied was genuinely incurred.

- (3) Lost time that may be compensable under section 14(4)(b) of the Law shall be computed in days or half-days or in such other manner as the Commissioner thinks fit, and wages or other income lost shall be proven by such documentary or other evidence as the Commissioner may require.

Made in Cabinet the 19th day of September, 2006.

Meredith Hew

Acting Clerk of the Cabinet.

These Regulations were affirmed by the Legislative Assembly on the 3rd day of September, 2007, by Government Motion No. 2 of 2007/2008, in compliance with section 23(2) of the Complaints Commissioner Law (2006 Revision).

Sharon Smith

Acting Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
