Memorandum of OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Customs and Border Control Act (2024 Revision) (“the principal Act”) to introduce a rate of duty of two per cent on temporary imports.

The Bill also amends the principal Act to introduce new offences and to provide for administrative penalties in respect of certain offences.

Further, the Bill provides that, unless otherwise specified, application fees are non-refundable.

Clause 1 provides for the short title and commencement of the legislation.

Clause 2 amends the principal Act by repealing and substituting section 22. The substituted section 22 introduces a rate of duty of two per cent on temporary imports.

Clause 3 amends section 86 of the principal Act by changing the penalty where, among other things, the master or captain of the vessel transports to the Islands passengers or crew who are required to have a valid entry visa or proof of citizenship, and are not in possession of such documents. The amendment proposes to introduce an administrative penalty for such an offence.

Clause 4 amends section 94 of the principal Act to provide that a parent who fails to report the birth of the child to the Director within three months after the birth of the child commits an offence and is liable to an administrative penalty.

The clause also amends section 94 of the principal Act to provide that an application submitted under that section shall be accompanied by the prescribed application fee, the prescribed administrative fee and the prescribed non-refundable repatriation fee, as applicable.

Clause 5 amends section 105 of the principal Act to make it an offence for a person to knowingly assist or cause another person to remain or reside in the Islands where the remaining or residing would be in contravention of the legislation.

Clause 6 amends the principal Act by inserting proposed section 128A. The proposed section 128A provides that unless otherwise specified, application fees prescribed under the legislation are non-refundable.

Clauses 7 and 8 amend Schedules 1 and 2 to the principal Act respectively to provide for administrative penalties being introduced under the legislation and related amendments.
