Memorandum of OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Parliament Management Act (2023 Revision), (the “principal Act”), to provide for the establishment of an office and staff for the Leader of the Opposition in order to enable the Leader of the Opposition to more effectively discharge the constitutional functions of that office.

This Bill also amends the principal Act to provide constituency office managers to support the constituency offices of elected Members of Parliament and to provide for increases in constituency allowances and other allowances for Members of Parliament.

Clause 1 provides the short title of the legislation and contains a commencement provision.

Clause 2 provides for general amendments to the legislation in order to ensure consistency when referring to Members of Parliament.

Clause 3 amends section 2 of the principal Act to redefine a “constituency assistant” as a person appointed by the Chief Officer with responsibility to provide services to an elected Member of Parliament. This clause also defines a “constituency office manager” as a person appointed by the Chief Officer with responsibility to manage the constituency office of an elected Member of Parliament.

Clause 4 amends section 4 of the principal Act which deals with general functions of the Commission. Pursuant to this amendment, the Commission is empowered to-

- (a) provide constituency office managers to elected Members of Parliament; and
- (b) provide an office and staff to support the office of the Leader of the Opposition.

Clause 5 repeals and substitutes section 12A of the principal Act which deals with constituency assistants. The proposed new section 12A provides that Schedule 2 applies to both constituency office managers and staff of the Leader of the Opposition.

Clause 6 amends section 13 of the principal Act which deals with the structure of the Commission, to include references to constituency office managers and staff of the Leader of the Opposition.

Clause 7 amends Schedule 1 of the principal Act to provide that both the Deputy Speaker and the Deputy Leader of the Opposition are entitled to an increased allowance of ten percent (10%) of their monthly salary for serving in their respective roles as Members of Parliament.

Clause 8 repeals and substitutes Schedule 2 of the principal Act. Schedule 2 now contains provisions governing the terms and conditions on which constituency office managers, and staff of the office of the Leader of the Opposition are to be contracted by the Commission.

Schedule 2 is also amended to increase the constituency allowances for each elected Member of Parliament to $6500 per month.
